Be All Write

#ILFWritingChallenge

Prompt: Write a letter to your younger self.

PastxFuture

Dearest,
I'm happy you left your worries behind and aim what your heart desire. You can no longer go back the time so live with no regrets and live the life you want. Accept the past and make it a tool for you to move forward! Be with the boat that sails even its destroyed with waves. Live life with challenges that makes you braver.
